Dear Potential Employer,

Thank you for your interest in hiring an AMCA certificant. This letter is intended as an informational piece as to whom the AMCA is and what we represent in the Allied Healthcare Field.

The American Medical Certification Association (AMCA) is headquartered in Fairfield, New Jersey. The AMCA was established in 2010 with a vision of enhancing the allied healthcare industry by providing national certification exams that validate the knowledge and expertise of professionals in this field. The AMCA collaborates and actively participates in the allied healthcare industry to serve as a support network for allied healthcare professionals. The AMCA has obtained membership in various organizations to strengthen its’ ties to the industry.

AMCA creates and distributes certification exams to the allied healthcare industry through approved schools and organizations. The purpose of our certification exams is to verify that each successful exam candidate has proven that they are knowledgeable in their specific subject matter. Certification by definition means, “To attest as being true or as represented as meeting a standard.” It is through a set of standards that the American Medical Certification Association has developed each of its exams.

Each certification exam is developed by a team of Subject Matter Experts who have years of experience in their chosen field. The exams are based on 5+ subject areas: Medical Terminology, Medical Law and Ethics, OSHA and Infection Control, Pharmacology, Anatomy and Physiology and the subject matter related to that specific area i.e., CMA, Phlebotomy, EKG or MAA.

The AMCA is proud to be active members of the: Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE), Association for Private Sector Colleges and Universities (APSCU), Career Colleges and Schools of Texas (CCST), Texas Workforce Development, New Jersey Department of Workforce Development, Coalition of New York State Career Schools, and are extremely proud of our new relationship with HOSA and NOCTI. As a military friendly company, we welcome our military friends to check our listing on ARMY Cool and NAVY Cool.
